- ▶ The training provided to them includes basic drill, physical training(exercises), code of conduct(punctuality, discipline, etc), fire fighting, visitor-entry recording, principles of checking/frisking, do's and don'ts of security on duty, use of first aid, use of electronic security gadgets and such basic necessities of security.

CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

India is a country with a population of about 1.4 billion. Thus, increasing the quality of these human resources is quite essential for the growth of our country. This can be done by providing skill training and employment to people.

As a part of our Corporate Social Responsibility activity, we provide training to unemployed youths in the category of ‘Unarmed Security Guards’.

We impart Security Training to unemployed youths and help them learn security tasks and skills needed to build their career in the field of Security and Safety.

This helps them to find and secure a job in the field of security. We not only train the unemployed youths, but also place them in our company, thus, providing employment to them.

We also take care of educational expenses of the children of genuine and needy families who wish to educate their children but lack enough funds for the same.

We support the ‘पढ़ेगा इंडिया, बढ़ेगा इंडिया’ movement.
